

Martin N. Milobar

Experience

1975-77 City of Bakersfield Public Works, CA

Engineer

- Design and construction over-site of various public works projects

1978-79 Boyle Engineering Corporation, CA

Engineer

- Design and construction over-site of various agricultural water projects

1979-84 Wheeler Ridge-Maricopa Water Storage District, CA

Engineer

- Planning, development, design, construction over-site, inspection, and operation of various agricultural water supply projects
- Management of district State Water Project water supplies
- Supervision of various departments

1984-2008 Buena Vista Water Storage District, CA

Engineer-Manager

- Planning, development, design, construction over-site, inspection, and operation of various large surface and groundwater projects
- Management of district water assets including Kern River water rights, SWP contract water, Friant-Kern Contracts, and various banking and recovery programs
- Reports to Board of Directors, Responsible for management of District Operations, Budgeting, Personnel, and Supervision of various departments

2008-Present

Engineering Consultant

- Buena Vista Water Storage District - Monitor various aspects of State Water Project; Represent BVWSD in Isabella remediation project with U.S.Army Corps. of Engineers; Perform assigned engineering studies; Promote Kern River Watermaster Association; Develop reports for presentation to BVWSD

Education

1961-65 San Jose State University

- Major in Mathematics

1965-68 California Polytechnic State University at San Luis Obispo

- B.S., Agricultural Engineering

1977-78 California State University at Fresno

- B.S., Civil Engineering

Professional
Licenses

Registered Civil Engineer in the State of California

- No. C 28113

Registered Agricultural Engineer in the State of California

- No. AG 438